SHOP OWNER KILLED CHASING GANG IN ROBBERY

VICTIM: Shammi Atwal

By Pat Higgins

barking@yellowad.co.uk

Brave father of two dies in collision with lorry

A BUSINESS owner has been killed while attempting to defend himself and his wife against armed robbers.

Shammi Atwal died after the attack by ten men on Glen and Co cash and carry, in Ripple Road, Barking around 10.20am on Monday, October 15.

The gang entered the shop swinging metal bars and at least one sledgehammer.

Both Mr Atwal and his wife attempted to stop the robbery. Police said the gang ran from the premises and the father of two, from Chigwell, gave chase, but was allegedly pushed in front of a moving lorry.

Mr Atwal, 45, was declared dead at the scene.

His 37-year-old wife suffered minor injuries.

Officers from the Met's

Homicide and Major Crime Command (HMCC) appealed for information.

Detective Chief Inspector Neale Baldock, said: "This was a man trying to stop thieves robbing his business.

"He acted bravely in defence of his wife and managed to chase the robbers from his premises only for him to be pushed in front of a moving lorry.

"People in the community know who committed this appalling and cowardly crime and I would urge them to contact my officers."

The lorry driver stopped and was not arrested.

Anyone who was in the area at the time or who has information about this incident is asked to call the Incident Room on 020 8345 1570 or Crimestoppers anonymously on 0800 555 111.

Sham marriage fixer jailed

A SHAM marriage 'fixer' whose cover was blown by two of his 'clients' has been jailed for two and a half years.

Taofik Amao, 50, of Stanfield Gardens, Dagenham, was found guilty of conspiracy to facilitate a breach of immigration law on February 20, following a 10 day trial at the Old Bailey. He was sentenced on Thursday.

Amao attempted to arrange a fake wedding between 27-year-old Dutch national Scheyecka Nowells, and Nigerian Oluwaseun Olukokun, 31, of Stanmore Road, Birmingham, in October 2012.

However the couple were summoned for a marriage interview with Home Office staff after they became suspicious that the relationship may not be genuine.

They were questioned and Nowells admitted the intended marriage was a sham and claimed that the 'fixers' could be seen carrying her red suitcase at London Bridge Station.

Amao and fellow suspect Akinwale Akinmade, 37, of Turner Avenue, Seven Sisters, Haringey, were arrested at the station for conspiracy to facilitate a non EU national to remain in the UK.

Taofik Amao

Nowells and Olukokun were arrested for the same offence and, along with Akinmade, made statements implicating Amao as the main fixer, which were backed up by evidence gathered from his mobile phone and laptop computer.

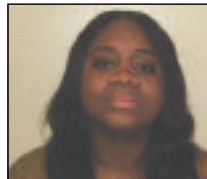

Nowells, Olukokun and Akinmade pleaded guilty to the charges and were sentenced to 12 months, 18 months and two years respectively at Woolwich Crown Court on February 1.

Amao was charged with conspiracy to facilitate a breach of immigration law on February 20.

Hannah Shirley, from the Home Office's immigration enforcement team, said: "Amao clearly thought that he could run roughshod over the UK's immigration rules and make a profit from his criminality."

"He was wrong as our

Scheyecka Nowells

Oluwaseun Olukokun

officers caught up with him and brought him to justice.

"The Home Office is cracking down on all forms of immigration crime, no matter how large or small, and those who seek to cheat immigration laws face prosecution and conviction."

Anyone with information about suspected immigration abuse can contact Crimestoppers on 0800 555 111 anonymously

Park cleanup

FOUR volunteers helped Barking Park ranger with his annual task of clearing the autumn leaves.

They tackled areas road sweepers cannot reach, to help the gardeners keep the park looking spic and span.

Twelve bags of leaves were swept from the tennis courts and children's play area.

Vice-chancellor

PROFESSOR John Joughin, has been appointed new vice-chancellor for the University of East London.

He has been acting vice chancellor for the last six months, and deputy vice-chancellor for two and a half years and was responsible for the development of the academic core of the institution, as well as line management of the deans of school, director of academic practice and learning and the director of the graduate school.

Older people's week

BARKING and Dagenham College students were on hand to help local residents as part of older people's week, run by Barking and Dagenham Council.

Ten students from the college took part in the programme of activities which took place throughout the week, offering visitors help with their IT questions about computers, the internet, and mobile phones.

OPEN: Walthamstow's new baby bank.

Baby bank opens up for bibs-ness

FAMILIES have already begun to use Walthamstow's new baby bank.

It helps needy parents and carers with prams, buggies toys and equipment - rather like a food bank.

"There is obviously a great need for this bank," said Lisa Hayde the family and outreach support worker, behind the scheme.

"Everyone is feeling the pinch with the recession still biting and changes to benefits and we are able to help.

"We lend for free or give toys, prams and equipment to needy families. We can also offer help and advice and a chance for parents to have a chat while they're here," she added.

Local residents and businesses have been generous with donations, 31-year-old Lisa said.

"We have lots of toys from Ikea, which wants to stay involved with us in the future and Edufantastic and Asda have also been very helpful."

The bank is based at Higham Hill Children's Centre, 313 Billet Road, and is open on Tuesdays from 9.30am to 12.30pm and Thursday afternoons from 3.30pm to 5.30pm.

C-ouch! Fly tipper made to pay £575

A FLY TIPPER who was filmed dumping a sofa has been hit in the pocket for £575.

A firm's security camera picked up a silver Citroen Relay van drawing up outside the Big Yellow Storage depot in Hertford Road, Barking, at 10.50pm on June 9, loading a sofa and other items, driving out of car park and parking next to a fence.

Then the occupants got out, dumped the van's contents by the side of the road and drove off.

The firm contacted Barking and Dagenham Council who traced the owner Camille Messany, of Bridlington Road, Edmonton, through a DVLA search.

Council enforcement officers interviewed him three days later and he admitted the offence.

Romford magistrates fined him £250 with £300 costs and £25 victims surcharge after he pleaded guilty to fly-tipping on Friday October 4.

Cllr Jeanne Alexander, cabinet member for crime, justice and communities, said: "This case is an excellent example of how councils and local businesses can work together to fight the crime and anti-social behaviour that blights communities."

"If any other businesses find they have CCTV footage of fly-tipping, or any other act of anti-social behaviour, we would be very pleased to hear from them."

DUMPED: Sofa and other trash.

"We are grateful to Big Yellow Storage for sending us the footage it had."

GLEEFUL: Making music

Glee clubs set for battle

GLEE Clubs in London are tuning up to battle for a place in the final of a competition to find the best in the UK.

The search for the best clubs in the capital has been running all summer, and has produced 15 to compete at Barking's Broadway Theatre for six places at the Gala Final at the O2 arena in November.

Last year a club from the Ursuline Academy in Redbridge won the contest.

The Jack Petchey challenge is in its third year and has attracted 1,200 youngsters since it started – this year at least 400 have taken part with 27 groups going through to regional finals to sing their way to a £5,000 winning prize.

Each of the finalists has attended a boot camp with top tuition from a team of professional artists to make their performances as polished as possible.

The Gala Final will be judged by TV's Graham Norton, actress Tamzin Outhwaite, West End theatre actress and singer Brenda Edwards plus former TV Eastender John Partridge.

The Broadway heat takes place Saturday and Sunday, October 19 and 20 at 7pm.

Tickets are £10 and available from the theatre on 020 8507 5607 or www.thebroadwaybarking.com or 020 8507 5607.

Council to crack down on illegal loan sharks

LOAN sharks are about to meet their match.

Barking and Dagenham Council is calling in a crack team of experts to investigate and prosecute illegal moneylenders operating in the borough.

The team from Birmingham, includes ex-police and security officers with expertise in surveillance and security operations.

The cabinet agreed the move last week after a report highlighting the misery loan sharks cause.

It pointed out borrowers 'were charged extortionate interest so they can often never pay off the loan, and could face intimidation, forced prostitution and other extreme physical violence.'

lence.'

It added loan sharks target vulnerable people, single mothers and areas with a high proportion of rented homes especially high rise flats, where other lenders are loathed to go to collect.

The council will run a campaign to encourage anyone affected by loan sharks to contact the team.

A spokesman said: "There is no evidence to suggest illegal money lending is more prevalent in Barking and Dagenham than other areas of the country. However, as a relatively deprived borough with a large number of rented properties, we know we have a some communities typical of those targeted by money lenders."

Under current law trading standards officers oversee money lending, and as the borough does not have the resources or expertise it agreed to sign up to the Birmingham team, which is government funded.

The spokesman added: "We have decided to engage the help of Birmingham Council's illegal money lending team because it has skills and expertise which we do not possess internally."

"Also, because this is a government funded initiative there is no cost to the council."

"We will be publicising the scheme to encourage people to come forward and get help if they have been affected by illegal money lending. We will also be asking partner agencies to refer people to the service."

The council will be releasing a dedicated money shortly. meanwhile anyone who needs help with loan sharks can phone 020 8215 3000.

'Go home' vans banned

CONTROVERSIAL Home Office Ad vans urging illegal immigrants to go home have been banned by the Advertising Standards Agency.

The watchdog received 224 complaints about the vans which toured Barking, Dagenham and Redbridge.

Posters on the sides of the vans stated 'Go Home or Face Arrests' and gave the numbers of arrests made the previous week.

Most complaints claimed the words 'Go Home' were offensive and distressing, and arrest figures could not be substantiated.

The ASA found the adverts were misleading but not offensive or irresponsible and ruled it must not appear again in its present form.

THE COUNTRY will be turning red next year to mark the centenary of the start of the First World War – and a small part of Barking and Dagenham has already sown its seeds to join in to mark the historic event.

Residents at a care home planted their poppy seeds on Monday, ready for their bright red spring crop.

The seeds were given to Bennett Castle Home by Dagenham's Co-operative Funeralcare branch, which is joining other funeral homes nationwide to give poppy seeds to organisations, churches, community clubs, schools and residential homes, to enable them to sow them this autumn in time for them to bloom a beautiful red next spring.

To mark next year's centenary of the start of the First World War, there is a growing public campaign to plant as many poppy seeds as possible for the historic event.

Lorraine Gunner and Shelley Fliee from Co-operative Funeralcare, said: "We are joining the campaign to help cover the UK in real Flanders poppies during 2014 to commemorate the huge sacrifice made by millions of men and women during the Great War, and would encourage people to collect poppies and get sowing."

Any organisation wishing to plant British native poppy seeds should contact The Co-operative Funeralcare on 020 8595 6783 or 020 8594 3220 or pop into the funeral home at 521 Gale Street Dagenham or 75 Longbridge Road, Barking.

CONDITIONS OF ACCEPTANCE FOR ALL ADVERTISEMENTS

Orders are accepted by the Publishers subject to the Standard Conditions agreed between the Newspaper Society and the Institute of Practitioners in Advertising. Save that:

1. Advertisements are accepted on the conditions that (a) descriptions relating to goods are accurate and in no way contravene the provisions of the Trade Descriptions Act 1968, and the Fair Trading Act 1973; and (b) the copy complies with the British Code of Advertising Practice. Advertisements offering credit or hire facilities must conform to the Consumer Credit (Advertisements) Regulations 1980.
2. Classified Advertisers offering goods or service of a business, commercial or trade nature will, at the discretion of the Publishers, be deemed 'Trade Advertisers', and as such, must include their names in advertisements. A telephone number is an optional addition to these requirements and not an alternative.
3. The Publishers accept no liability whatsoever for any loss or damage however caused arising out of:
- (a) Any error, inaccuracy or omission in the printing or publishing of any advertisement;
- (b) Any failure to publish an advertisement on the day / date or day / dates specified by the advertiser; or
- (c) Any delay in forwarding or omission to forward replies to box numbers to the Advertiser.
4. The Publishers will endeavour to publish advertisements on the day / date or day / dates specified by the Advertiser but insertion days / dates cannot be guaranteed.
5. Where shrinkage of advertisement occurs for whatever reasons the advertisement will be charged to the nearest full centimetre. This will NOT apply to the full-page advertisements, which remain full pages even after shrinkage.
6. The Publishers reserve the right to reject an advertisement or to vary it in any way they deem fit, at any time before publication, whether or not the advertisement has already been accepted for publication.
7. Whilst every effort is made to minimise errors in advertisements, mistakes do sometimes occur. Advertisers or their agents should therefore check their advertisements and inform us of any errors immediately. Responsibility cannot be accepted for more than one incorrect insertion. Typographical or minor changes, which do not affect the value of the advertisement, do not qualify for republication or allowances.
8. All gross advertising rates (except classified lineage and semi-display) are subject to and include a 0.1% Advertising Standards Board of Finance surcharge, payable by the advertisers to help finance the self-regulatory control system administered by the Advertising Standards Authority.
9. All rates quoted are subject to VAT at the rate currently in force at the time the advertisement appears.
10. Should the rate for advertisements be altered the price for remaining insertions shall be revised accordingly or the publishers shall have the right to cancel the unexpired portion of the order.
11. The placing of an advertisement order will be deemed an acceptance of these conditions.
12. Account facilities are granted at the discretion of the Company.
13. All accounts must be settled within the terms agreed by the Company and the Customer.
- (1) Should an advertiser be in breach of the agreed terms, the publisher shall be entitled to levy a 10% surcharge on the value of the whole debt in respect of accounts with terms of less than 30 days, and any discounts or commissions that had been allowed will be reclaimed.
- (2) Regular monthly accounts that are in breach of the agreed terms will pay an interest rate of 6% above the current bank of England base rate for each month that the account is overdue and discounts or commissions that had been allowed will be reclaimed. Should Legal action be required the interest will be charged in accordance with the County Court Act 1984.
14. Where an advertiser instructs / appoints an advertising agent to act on their behalf, the advertiser will remain jointly and severally liable for payment in respect of an advertisement should the appointed agent fail to pay. For the avoidance of doubt, the agent acts for the advertiser and not for the publisher with the agent being responsible for notifying the advertiser of this liability.
15. All queries must be notified, preferably in writing to the accounts department of the publisher within 7 days of the invoice date.
16. All digital services are maintained in partnership with the publishers' hosting service providers. Every effort is made to ensure the continuity of these services, but some occasional technical downtime beyond the publishers control may occur. The publisher and its associated companies shall be under no liability if the production and distribution of web services is delayed or prevented by any cause beyond the control of the publisher.
17. The Publisher may provide voucher copies for published advertisements in electronic form only subject to certain criteria. Further information is available on request.
18. The copyright of advertisements produced wholly or partially by the Publishers belong to the Publishers. Advertisers may not reproduce such advertisements without the Publishers' consent.
- Box Numbers
- Boxes are open for the receipt of bona fide answers and are not available for distribution of trade canvassing matter. Original testimonials, goods, cash, cash stamps or payments of any kind must not be enclosed. A box Number and postal address are charged as part of the advertisement, i.e. Box No., centre address. There is no charge for forwarding replies. Box numbers alone are not available for use in 'Trade' advertisements, other than Employment and Business Opportunities.
- Holiday & Travel Category
- All advertising must contain the name of the advertiser, phone number alone are not permitted.
- Data Protection
- The service you have requested may require us to carry out a credit search at a credit-referencing agency, which will record the fact that a search has been made. We may need to share your information with other lenders and credit reference agencies. However, we will only use the information from these searches to make credit-granting decisions and, if necessary, for fraud prevention or tracing debtors.
- Data controller will use your information for administration and analysis. We may share your information with other Trade Group newspaper companies or carefully selected third parties. We, or they, may send you details of other goods and services, which may be of interest to you. The information may be provided by letter, telephone or other reasonable means of communication. Calls may be recorded or monitored for training purposes.
- Special conditions apply with regard to the advertising of adult services, which are outlined to all persons submitting such advertisements.

THE ALLEN FORD SUPER SALE IS A HUGE SUCCESS AGAIN

The recent Allen Ford used car supersale sale, held annually at the Holiday Inn in Brentwood, turned out to be another great success story.

The weather was kind throughout the three and a half days with warm temperatures and sunny skies. This year the unique outdoor Sale event was extremely well attended with over 1000 people, this being more than ever before. The sale got off to a fantastic start with 40 cars being sold at the preview event on Thursday evening. The main event then ran from 9.00am Friday to 16.00pm on Sunday and by close of play on Sunday afternoon, 205 customers had purchased a new car.

A spokesman for Allen Ford said, "We are once again overwhelmed with the response that we have received to this fantastic event. Everyone seemed to really enjoy visiting a car sales event that was held outdoors away from the showroom. To sell 205 cars in three and a half days is an incredible achievement, we would like to thank everyone who visited us and bought from us over the weekend and we look forward to delivering our customers vehicles soon.

If you were unable to attend the sale and are interested in purchasing a late Ford used car then please call into any one of our 3 Essex showrooms or call the appropriate manager for a personal appointment.

Administration Assistants | £17,970 pro rata | London | Full and part-time

This might look like any other admin job, but it's far more important than you'd think. The fact is, we couldn't help protect the UK without a dedicated support team behind us. You might be a school leaver, coming back to work after a break or looking for something steady after having had a full career. Either way, you'll have great organisation, communication and team working skills and you'll show flexibility, initiative and a commitment to the role. We currently have a range of administrative positions across our Corporate Services, Information Management and Facilities teams. To apply visit www.mi5.gov.uk/careers

To work for MI5 you must be a born or naturalised British citizen. You should not discuss your application, other than with your partner or a close family member, providing that they are British. They should also be made aware of the importance of discretion.

SLADE STICKS WITH UNSTOPPABLE O'S

Orient

Leyton Orient 2 MK Dons 1
Sky Bet League One
By Rowland Lyons at the Matchroom Stadium

LEYTON ORIENT boss, Russell Slade was quick to dispel any rumours linking him with the vacant Sheffield United job after masterminding Orient's latest win, which consolidated their position at the top of the table.

Slade admitted: "There is no temptation. I love this group and we have worked so hard together to get what we have as a football club. We are in a great position at the moment and it would take something special for me to leave this football club. I have one focus and one concentration – that is Leyton Orient Football Club."

It was a big day at Orient as the club marked the 39th anniversary of the legendary winger Laurie Cunningham's first-team debut and Slade's and team's patience was fittingly rewarded four minutes from the break when inform, wide man Moses Odubajo's spectacular strike cancelled out Dons' dangerman, Patrick Bamford's half-hour mark opener.

The late winger would have been proud as the league leaders then played some of their best football of the season and should have gone in ahead at the break with Dean Cox fluffing the best chance in allowing Ian McLoughlin to make a comfortable save.

But, Odubajo's leveller had knocked the stuffing out of the play-off hopefuls and shortly after blatant penalty claims had been waved away for a cynical foul on the young winger, a clever, spinning David Mooney through ball fell kindly for Kevin Lisbie to plant a powerful close-range effort past a stranded McLoughlin.

Orient then had to defend for their lives and had keeper, Jamie Jones, to thank for an instinctive block to deny sub, Izale McLeod, a certain goal, before the former Derby and Sheffield United hitman was unlucky to see his stunning drive rebound to safety after crashing against the bar.

The O's – before their biggest league crowd of the season – then held out, to leave skipper, Nathan Clarke, saying: "Yes, it was a massive win for us. The gaffer said before kick-off that today's game would give us some idea of where we are and MK were strong and disciplined, but we came out on top."

"The first goal really kicked us on and we were probably a happier dressing room at half-time and we were very focussed on giving a good performance in the second-half."

Clarke concluded: "Everyone's confident and on top form at the moment and to be in dressing spurs you on even more to better yourself. Even in training it's the tempo and work ethic – and you want to stay in the starting eleven."

Slade added: "I am very pleased with them. Sometimes – as coaches – we over-analyse what's happening. Quite simply – today – the better team won."

The happy O's boss concluded: "Perhaps – sometimes – we don't get the credit for some of the football we play, but we're able to mix it up. Some of the interplay between the midfield and out wide is exciting – that why there were 6,300 here today."

MK boss, Karl Robinson added: "Leyton Orient are where they are because they work hard, they've got fluency and good players. But, I am disappointed we didn't get anything out of the game. But, they're top of the league and we were the better team before they scored – but we gave them the ascendancy."

■ Orient make the long trip to struggling Tranmere Rovers this Saturday (kick-off 3pm).

Late strike for Chieftains

By Mark Hayden
London Raiders 2
Chelmsford Chieftains 2

THE London Raiders tied with the Chelmsford Chieftains on Sunday at the Riverside Ice Arena. In a dramatic match which saw both sides enjoy their fair share of attacks, London held the lead right up until the last minute.

This derby has been an intense fixture for both sides for years and this contest proved to be no exception, with referee Matt Thompson dishing out over 300 minutes of penalties throughout the game.

Recovering from a 7-3 defeat at Bracknell on the October 12, Frankie Harvey gave the Raiders the advantage with a powerplay in the 16th minute courtesy of a Billy Phillips assist.

Carrying the weight of a disappointing loss, not to mention the absences of import Bomber Kaminskis and net minder Dan Lane, the Raiders performed remarkably well.

There was a slight scare for the London management in the second period when former Chieftains minder Euan King went down injured, but the Raiders man played on.

Also in the second period, Chieftains' Gary Clarke received a match penalty for spearing JJ Pitchley, who had to be carried off the ice by two players.

Shaun Yardley struck for London in the third period making it 2-0 to London. This scoreline remained for less than two minutes, when Grant Bartlett brought one back for the home side. Chelmsford then bagged the equaliser 47 seconds from time with a Ross Brears strike.

A tense, passionate showdown culminated in a bloody brawl on the ice, resulting in match penalties for four Raiders men and five of Chelmsford's squad.

It's a shame that this gloriously competitive match concluded with such scenes. London will undoubtedly suffer the consequences when they travel to Cardiff on Saturday.

Net minder Euan King put on a sublime display, and was named man of the match.

Fire fighters quell Thunder

Brentwood Fire 41 Barking and Dagenham Thunder 38
SERV Security's Brentwood Fire u12's travelled to Barking Abbey Leisure Centre for their second National League fixture of the season.

Fire started slowly allowing Thunder to take a 9-5 first quarter lead. At the start of the second quarter Fire ignited, taking the quarter by 3 points and reducing the deficit to 17-16 at half time.

After an inspirational halftime talk from coaches Alex Potter and William Twigg, Fire continued to run hot, finishing the quarter 29-26 ahead. A closely fought final quarter ended even, Fire running out 41-38 winners.

James Oldham was voted MVP.

Woodford given a hard lesson in class

Basketball

Brentwood 50 v Woodford 0

THE draw for the first round of the Essex Cup was not kind to Woodford. Facing last year's cup and league double winners, Brentwood, on their own turf. Even the early morning downpour that might have assisted in levelling the game up a bit stopped before the whistle blew.

Brentwood kicked off with the wind and slope and soon had Woodford on the back foot forcing a scrum in the Woodford half. The Woodford pack was secure in the tight but Brentwood's speed to the break down and direct running saw them link up players to score.

Woodford kicked off and tried to mount an attack but Brentwood got more players to each breakdown and quickly recovered the ball. They pressed home their advantage with direct running and off loads in the tackle to score again.

Woodford came back again and a scrum gave a promising position before the ball was lost and kicked down field for a lineout in the Woodford 22.

With Brentwood applying pressure Woodford started to creep off-side to try to stem the flow of possession. This was penalised by the referee and Brentwood mounted an attack and scored.

Woodford organised themselves better defensively but the Brentwood attack was slick and as tackles were made they did not hold up the progress, with Brentwood going over for more tries.

In youth games once a side is 50 points in front the match is finished and with eight tries and five conversions Brentwood reached the magic 50.

Woodford will learn from this encounter about the step up they need to achieve if they want to play first division rugby.

Squad: Robert Yiannakou, Arun Vaid, Mick Chamberlain, Taylor Wilkins, Callum Levy, Max Venditti, Euan Fay, Victor Chujor, Rhys Phillips, Will Curness, Jed West, William Tindall, Tom Mead, Sean Moore, Alex Marks, Jamie Ali,

Mick Chamberlain on the attack

Haaris Sohoye, Will Carey, Tom Fitzpatrick, Bailey Francis, Anthony Hamilton.

Sportingly both sides agreed to play a new 'half' game and this was a very different affair. Woodford found their mojo and attacked Brentwood from all angles. With crunching tackles and rolling mauls the penalty count now went in Woodford's favour as they applied pressure.

Brentwood were still operating at top speed and raced away for an early score. Woodford came back and had a try disallowed before a fortunate interception allowed Brentwood to score under the posts. Woodford kept up the pressure and were rewarded with a converted try and a respectable 12-7 loss.

Lucky seven for ladies as men lose seven-goal thriller

Hockey

Waltham Forest Ladies 7 BBHC 0

WALTHAM Forest Ladies 1s continued their unbeaten start to the season with an emphatic 7-0 win at home against BBHC.

Forest started very strongly scoring after only three minutes when they took advantage with a quick free hit and Katherine Abbie scored with a shot from the right hand side of the D into the far corner.

They doubled their lead with an excellent reverse stick shot from Lucy Butcher but made hard work of the first half as they struggled to get into their stride.

Waltham Forest's play in the second half was much improved and they dominated play with some fast flowing hockey. Man of the match Katherine Abbie scored a third shortly after half time as she tapped in at the far post following some excellent attacking play on the left hand side. Lucy Butcher then got her second of the match with a fine strike from a short corner and Philippa Laguen de Lacroix made it five with a well struck shot from the edge of the D.

Forest continued to open up the BBHC defence with some lovely passing and attacking play and Amy Morris finished off a great set piece with a well taken deflection.

The home side wrapped up their well deserved win with a second goal from Philippa Laguen de Lacroix.

Waltham Forest Men 3 Ipswich 4

WALTHAM Forest men's first team were disappointed not to take any points from this home fixture despite being in control for much of the match.

Two goals from short corners against the run of play put Ipswich 2-0 up before Forest responded with some flowing passing to make it 2-1 through Rich Lowe, and again minutes later through the lively James Price.

Forest's defence looked comfortable and when Nico Kurt put the home team in the lead the three points looked likely. However after failing to extend their lead further Forest allowed Ipswich to get back into an increasingly open tie. A third short corner goal drew things level before a moment of defensive madness from goal scorer Rich Lowe gifted the visitors the lead.

Despite having a man advantage for the final five minutes after a yellow card was shown, Forest couldn't break down the Ipswich defence a fourth time.

Waltham Forest will take positives from impressive passages of play but will need to improve their concentration and discipline in their upcoming fixtures.

Could you make a difference and become a foster carer?

By Shelina Hargrove

The number of children coming into care has been increasing every year, but there are not enough foster carers able to give them a safe home. A child comes into care and needs a foster home every 22 minutes in the UK, so more foster families are needed urgently to provide a warm and loving environment to vulnerable children in the community.

Some children need a safe place to stay for only a few nights, whilst others might stay in long-term foster care until they are grown up. It is important that children who require care have foster carers who can meet their needs, so foster children are matched very closely with carers to help ensure that the placement will be successful.

Could you make a difference and become a foster carer?

- You may be married, live as a couple, be single or divorced
- You may be gay or heterosexual
- You may be from any ethnic background, culture or religion
- You may be employed, unemployed or early retired
- You may be a home owner or a tenant
- You do not need any formal qualifications to become a foster carer

What you will need is a spare bedroom for the exclusive use of the foster child, patience and flexibility, and the time and energy to invest in a child or young person.

Caroline's story:

My name is Caroline. I am 49 years of age and a single parent to two daughters, aged 22 and 12. I have been a foster carer for eleven years and have been with my current agency for five years now. I became a foster carer because I wanted to make a difference and support vulnerable children; I felt as a parent I was naturally equipped with motherhood, so caring for less privileged children came as second nature.

'For me, the best part was knowing that I could make a positive impact in the children's lives and help them change things for the better'

My first foster child stayed with me for only a short time, but the trust and love that developed between us remains today. She still visits regularly as a part of our family, now with a child of her own! I then became a long-term foster carer to three brothers, Christopher (11), David (10) and Billy (7). All of the boys are now grown up and living independent lives.

I cannot say it was always easy – there were many difficult times – but perseverance, persistence and patience became rewarding. For me, the best part was knowing that I could make a positive impact in the children's lives and help them change things for the better. Seeing the children grow into independent and intelligent individuals has brought me satisfaction and helped me to become a better person.

All of this would not have been possible had it not been for the support network around me – my family and friends, and my supervising social worker, Cathy. Her wealth of knowledge and professionalism has helped me enormously. I recently completed 5 years of service with the National Fostering Agency and was presented with an award at a ceremony in London! I would like to thank my agency for their support, and express my gratitude to all those carers who take the time to make a difference.

Ben's story:

I was brought up in care and I moved away from my family when I was 10 years old. I didn't have a great time to start off with; I moved a lot and also changed schools, which was pretty rubbish at the time. When I was 13, I moved in with some foster carers that I really liked! They listened to what I had to say and really cared about me. I was at a new school with loads of new friends, and I really wanted to stay.

After a few years at school I got my GCSEs and they were really important to me, as I wanted to get into college and study for my A-Levels. I now have my A-Levels under my belt and I'm looking to go to university soon.

I really like to exercise and I'm always out and about – running, swimming and going to the gym. When I'm not exercising or working you will find me in the living room playing FIFA with my foster brother...and he always wins!

Could you offer a child a safe place?

The most important ingredient in fostering is YOU

You can apply to be a foster carer regardless of your marital or residential status. What you will need is a spare room and the time and energy to invest in a child or young person.

Sham marriage fixer jailed

A SHAM marriage 'fixer' whose cover was blown by two of his 'clients' has been jailed for two and a half years.

Taofik Amao, 50, of Stanfield Gardens, Dagenham, was found guilty of conspiracy to facilitate a breach of immigration law on February 20, following a 10 day trial at the Old Bailey. He was sentenced on Thursday.

Amao attempted to arrange a fake wedding between 27-year-old Dutch national Scheyecka Nowells, and Nigerian Oluwaseun Olukokun, 31, of Stanmore Road, Birmingham, in October 2012.

However the couple were summoned for a marriage interview with Home Office staff after they became suspicious that the relationship may not be genuine.

They were questioned and Nowells admitted the intended marriage was a sham and claimed that the 'fixers' could be seen carrying her red suitcase at London Bridge Station.

Amao and fellow suspect Akinwale Akinmade, 37, of Turner Avenue, Seven Sisters, Haringey, were arrested at the station for conspiracy to facilitate a non EU national to remain in the UK.

Taofik Amao

Nowells and Olukokun were arrested for the same offence and, along with Akinmade, made statements implicating Amao as the main fixer, which were backed up by evidence gathered from his mobile phone and laptop computer.

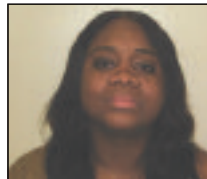

Nowells, Olukokun and Akinmade pleaded guilty to the charges and were sentenced to 12 months, 18 months and two years respectively at Woolwich Crown Court on February 1.

Amao was charged with conspiracy to facilitate a breach of immigration law on February 20.

Hannah Shirley, from the Home Office's immigration enforcement criminal and financial investigations team, said: "Amao clearly thought that he could run roughshod over the UK's immigration rules and make a profit from his criminality."

"He was wrong as our officers caught up with him and brought him to justice.

"The Home Office is cracking down on all forms of immigration crime, no matter how large or small, and those who seek to cheat immigration laws face prosecution and conviction."

Park cleanup

FOUR volunteers helped Barking Park ranger with his annual task of clearing the autumn leaves.

They tackled areas road sweepers cannot reach, to help the gardeners keep the park looking spic and span.

Twelve bags of leaves were swept from the tennis courts and children's play area.

Vice-chancellor

PROFESSOR John Joughin, has been appointed new vice-chancellor for the University of East London.

He has been acting vice chancellor for the last six months, and deputy vice-chancellor for two and a half years and was responsible for the development of the academic core of the institution, as well as line management of the deans of school, director of academic practice and learning and the director of the graduate school.

Older people's week

BARKING and Dagenham College students were on hand to help local residents as part of older people's week, run by Barking and Dagenham Council.

Ten students from the college took part in the programme of activities which took place throughout the week, offering visitors help with their IT questions about computers, the internet, and mobile phones.
